

POWER OF ATTORNEY

MOBIL OIL CORPORATION, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of New York, United States of America, and having its principal office at 3225 Gallows Road, Fairfax, Virginia 22037 (hereinafter referred to as the "Company"), hereby nominates and appoints:

DENNIS P. SANTINI
MALCOLM D. KEEN

to be its lawful agent and attorney and, in its name and place, to do any and all of the acts enumerated below that it or its officers and directors might do if present, granting the said agent and attorney full power and authority to do and perform each and every act necessary or incidental to the proper exercise of the specified powers, as fully as the Company or its officers and directors could do if personally present, namely:

To execute in the name and on behalf of this Company any instrument or document required for:

- A. The obtainment and maintenance of intellectual property rights including patents, trademark registrations, copyright registrations and design registrations throughout the world on intellectual property owned by this Company, such instruments and documents comprising applications, petitions, powers of attorney, authorizations, verifications, declarations, or any other documents relating to the proceedings for the obtainment and maintenance of such intellectual property in the intellectual property offices of any country of the world and in any international agency established by treaty for the reception, examination and grant of intellectual property rights; and
- B. The abandonment of patents, copyright registrations, design registrations, trademark registrations, trademark, copyright, design and patent applications, the concession of priority or the abandonment of contests in contested cases with third parties or in oppositions brought by or against third parties in any country of the world or in any international agency established by treaty for the reception, examination and grant of intellectual property rights with respect to registration or granting of intellectual property rights owned by this Company; and
- C. The bringing, filing, prosecution and settlement of contested cases against third parties with respect to registration or grant of intellectual property rights, including intellectual property interferences, conflicts, oppositions, nullity suits, revocation actions, and invalidation actions, in any country of the world and in any international agency established by treaty for the reception, examination and grant of intellectual property rights;
- D. The representation of this Company in all proceedings established by the European Patent Convention;

- E. The negotiation, amendment, execution and termination of Confidentiality Agreements; and
- F. The negotiation, amendment, execution and termination of Invention Releases; and
- G. The negotiation, amendment, execution and termination of License, Assignment and Settlement Agreements relating to this Company's trademarks and copyrights.

In accordance with this power of attorney, this duly appointed agent and attorney may accept terms for incorporation in the instruments and documents enumerated above which will be binding on Mobil Oil Corporation upon the execution of said instruments or documents, and is authorized to perform all other acts that may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the valid execution of said instruments or documents, including the delegation of any authority within the scope of this power of attorney.

The Company hereby ratifies and confirms all that said agent and attorney-in-fact shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this power of attorney.

The Company hereby revokes effective January 14, 2000, the previous Power of Attorney granted by the Company under date of February 27, 1998, to:

RONALD A. BLEEKER

This power of attorney is signed by the duly authorized officer of the Company and the corporate seal of the Company on the date set below.
